

BLOCK CLAMP

Parijatha Block Clamp is a useful attachment to your forklift to move around strapped bundles of Concrete blocks into the storage area apart from also loading them on to trucks. Robust and sturdy construction to withstand the use in a Block factory

Specially designed forged Shoulder Joints which ensure longevity and structural strength.

Side shifter mechanism for adjusting the exact position without moving the fork lift

Double Band holding clamp system with swivel action to ensure firm grip apart for self aligning itself to undulation in the block cube.(

Unique Extruded guideways with replaceable liners for long life and low Maintenance costs.

SPECIFICATIONS

- Capacity at load center is 2700 Kgs
- Compatible with Mounting Class III
- Comes with an opening range of 290 mm to 1610 mm, an arm length of 1200 mm and a height of 242 mm

☎ 080 2839 4221

✉ sales@parijatha.com

Scan to visit website